

And after this our exile (1999), 13'

Orchestra

And after this our exile was premiered by KMH Orchestra in Stockholm conducted by Eivind Gullberg-Jensen. Later it was performed by the Finnish Radio Symphony Orchestra conducted by John Storgårds. And after this our exile is a piece for piano and orchestra, halfway to a piano concerto. The title is a quota from the fourth poem of T.S. Eliot's Ash-Wednesday which in turn is taken from the text Salve Regina "nobis post hoc exsilium ostende". Eliot's poetry has always fascinated me with it's array of images and more or less understandable references. Score and parts available from the Swedish Music Information Centre.
