

Scongiuro revocato (1997), 11'

Orchestra

Scongiuro revocato was premiered by KMH Orchestra in Stockholm conducted by Glenn Mossop. It was later performed by NMH Orchestra in Oslo conducted by Rolf Gupta.

Scongiuro = incantation/spell.

Revocato = retaken/unfulfilled.

An incantation that is not fulfilled due to lack of power or new insights. The piece is written in one movement with four subsections ; Larghetto, Lento, Allegro and Largo. The orchestra is treated almost as in chamber music, with several solos for different players. The three most important solos are for cello, vibraphone and corno inglese. These are the three solos on which the piece is built. Score and parts available from the Swedish Music Information Centre.
